A WORD FROM FATHER KEVIN

Our first reading today, we find that old man Moses, long past his eightieth year, has discovered that the success of the first battle the nation of Israel has with their long-term enemy the Amalekites depends on him holding his arms up in the air for hours. Think of Our Lady asking us at the tail end of the first World War to pray our Rosaries for peace. And then a coupled of decades later the Germans are at it again. Shall we ever have peace? The Holy Father has just asked us this month to pray the Rosary again for peace. Out with your beads, our arms are heavy... Moses had Aaron and Hur to hold his up, we should find our own assistance in these evil days. The Church has given us many weapons for spiritual warfare in our times. I've said something about the Rosary. S. Paul gives us a few more in our second reading: Scripture, the tradition Timothy has had from his mother and grandmother. With these we will snatch away our souls and those of the people we love from the enemy, the lord of this world, and entrust them to OLJC through His good Mother. And we shall not cease to pray like the persistent widow of the gospel for this world of men and women, made in the likeness of God. And Justice will come at last.

Holy Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against
the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray.
And do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl
about the world for the ruin of souls.
Amen.
